

Advisory Committee 2012

Advisory Committee activities may include: study of critical issues related to social determinants of health, equity, and health disparities; independent research; networking and community mobilization, strategic planning, and evaluation. Activities support committee preparation to discuss, formulate, and forward well-developed, thoughtful recommendations that assist the Center to achieve its mission and vision.

JERRY BRISCOE, MPH

ANA PAULA CUPERTINO, PhD,
Research Assistant Professor, Department of Preventive Medicine, University of Kansas Medical Center

DEE ANN DeROIN, MD, Community
Health and Wellness Center

MILDRED EDWARDS, PhD, Executive Director, Kansas African-American Affairs
Commission

ADRIENNE FOSTER
Executive Director
Kansas Hispanic & Latino American
Affairs Commission

MARTHA GABEHART
Executive Director
Kansas Commission on Disability
Concerns

RODERICK L. HARRIS, MPH, Director,
Children and Family Health Division,
Sedgwick County Health Department

DAN LEONG, MHSA, Project Director,
Emergency Preparedness, Kansas Hospital
Association

RHONDA K. LEWIS PhD, Professor of Psychology, Coordinator Community
Psychology Program, Wichita State University

ARNEATHA MARTIN, RN

HENRI MENAGER, MPH
Kansas Department of Health and Environment
Environmental Public Health Tracking
Program
Bureau of Environmental Health

LOU SAADI, PhD
KDHE Bureau of Surveillance and Public Health Informatics

JERRY SCHULTZ, PhD
Co-director, KU Workgroup for Community Health and Development
University of Kansas

DR. PATRICIA THOMAS, PhD
KUMC Chair of Pathology
Assoc. Dean of Cultural Enhancement and Diversity
University of Kansas